4-UP CHESHIRE OR DISKETTE

They may be from different fields of professional endeavors, or from different social classes, or from different age groups. But they have one thing in common: Their preference for the elitist form of entertainment, i.e., first class performances of operas, plays, ballets, and concerts. They do not go for pop concerts or fringe theatres. They spend on admission tickets. On top of that, some of them are prepared to travel and pay for accommodation in case of events to be staged away from their home towns. Their names compose the mailing list of theatre groups and cultural events organizers, who notify them of forthcoming events to be staged in town or in other places.
